5th Sunday of LentPassion Sunday

SOME OF YOU will have heard of Janani Luwum, a modern day saint. You may have seen his statue outside Westminster Abbey? The sculptor was Neil Simmons and the statue was unveiled more than 20 years ago now, in July 1998.

Janani became an archbishop in Uganda.

He was born in 1922 and his childhood and youth were spent as a goatherd. But he quickly showed an ability to learn, and at 10 years old was sent to school, and then went on to train as a primary school teacher.

He had a life-changing conversion experience, and he was eventually ordained in 1956. He became Bishop of Northern Uganda in 1969 and Archbishop of Uganda in 1974.

General Amin came to power in Uganda in 1971 as the result of a military coup, and his undemocratic and harsh rule was the subject of much criticism by the Church and others.

After Amin received a letter from the bishops protesting at the virtual institution of state murder, Janani and two of Amin's own government ministers were stated as having been found dead following a car accident. It emerged quickly that they had in fact died on the implicit instructions of the President.

Janani's enthusiasm for the good news of Jesus, combined with his willingness to sacrifice even his own life for what he believed in, led him to his martyrdom on the 17th February 1977.

He is quoted as having said,

'I am prepared to die in the army of Jesus.'
Our reading today from St John's Gospel, is usually associated with Janani and is read on his day on the 17th February as well as today, on Passion Sunday.

'Unless a grain of wheat falls on the ground and dies, it remains a single grain, but if it dies, it yields a rich harvest.'

Jesus died on a cross of self sacrifice for his people, and Janani also sacrificed his life, becoming a modern day martyr.

Many Ugandans who'd abandoned Christianity, returned to faith when they saw Archbishop Luwum's courage.

But we are not all called to be martyrs, although we do sometimes need to give something up to follow Jesus. Jesus said, 'Whoever serves me, must follow me, and where I am there will my servant be also.'

Do we need to give up some of our self-will in order to be more fully obedient to God?

Joan Chittister has said:

'No-one really has full control of their own lives. We're all limited by something. The difference is that some people decide what they will allow to control them, and some people find themselves controlled by the whims and fancies of life. All of us meet and wrestle with authority.

The only question is to what authority have we surrendered?

And do we use authority when we have it?'

For us as Christians, obedience offered to God, is a response to and of love.

We are invited to have obedient hearts inclined to God's will. And as we nurture the seed of God's universal love within us, others will see Jesus glorified in our lives.

George Herbert's prayer, The Call, is an appropriate response for us all:

Come, my joy, my love, my heart:

Such a joy, as none can move:

Such a love, as none can part:

Such a heart, as joys in love.

Amen.

23rd March National Day of Reflection Reflect • Support • Hope

Take a minute's silence at 12 noon on 23 March to show your support for the millions of people who are bereaved and take a moment to connect with someone.

Scan this QR code to light a candle online

God of Love.

As we think about all that has changed this year, help us to trust that you are always with us.

As we remember those who have died, help us to trust they are at peace with you.

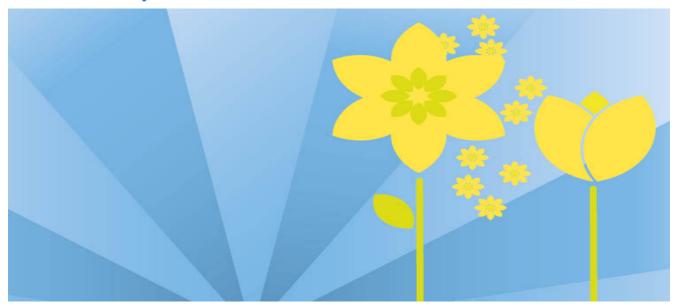

As we reach out to others with kindness and care, may hope shine out in every heart and home.

Amen

National Day of Reflection 2021

Since the first UK Covid-19 lockdown began in 2020, millions have been bereaved. The National Day of Reflection, coordinated by the charity Marie Curie and officially supported by the Church of England, will designate a special day to reflect on collective loss and grief.

On 23 March 2021 there will be a minute's silence at 12 noon to create a moment that shows support for the millions of people who've been bereaved.

There are many ways your church can get involved:

Publicise the day through your usual channels – social media, notices, etc.

Light a special candle in the church and say the prayer – film it with your camera and share on social media.

If you can, make arrangements for a church bell to be tolled for one minute at noon on the day. Use the prayer on the previous page at home on that day.

Involve the local school and encourage them to use the prayer at noon or to colour daffodil cards and deliver them to a local care home.

Invite people to plant a seed, a bulb, a bush as a sign of hope.

Invite people to tie yellow ribbons to a prayer tree or railings as a sign of their prayer and support for all who are bereaved.

Open your church for private prayer on that day, if you are able.

At Fornham St Martin on Tuesday 23 March the service will be Holy Communion with prayers for those who have died or been bereaved through Covid 19.

At St George's there will be a service of Prayer and Reflection from 11.45 till 12.15 on Tuesday 23 March. If notified beforehand Val will light a candle for a loved one or friend who has died in this last year, during the pandemic. People are invited to attend or if they just wish to send Val a name of someone, they can do so.

Email: rev.valgagen@gmail.com Tel: 01284 361963 Text: 07874 067371

At St John's the church will be open for private prayer from 11am to 3pm on Tuesday 23 March and the bell will be tolled for one minute at noon.

You are invited to an Easter Family Service at St George's on Sunday 28 March, called

Telling the Easter Story [with chocolate]... 3pm 'til about 3.30pm

Anyone 11 and over will need to wear a mask, hand sanitizers need to be used and social distancing will be in place.

You will need to book your seat with Rev Val by email rev.valgagen@gmail.com or text 07874 067371 or write a note and drop through the Vicarage door.

Please can you tell me your names and how many children are in your household group with you? I will then allocate you specific seats for the service.

Please book by the 20th March.

Entry will be from 2.45pm and the front doors will be available for you, exit will be by the back kitchen door. Thank you. Rev Val

Cross for Angel Hill

Churches Together are, this year, putting up a large wooden cross on Angel Hill in Bury St Edmunds as a witness for Holy Week and Easter. This is for this pandemic year, instead of the usual 'Walk of Witness' Good Friday event. There will not be any gathering - it is simply there for the general public to see.

The cross will be placed on Friday 26th March and removed on Tuesday 6th April.

Stations of the Cross at St John's

In a normal year, following the Stations of Cross is part of our devotional life during Lent and Passiontide. That's not been possible this year, but Iain McKillop's powerful Stations of the Cross remain available in the church for private prayer, 11am to 3pm, each day.

A meditation in words and music will be available in Passiontide on Facebook @StJohnsBSE and the website www.northburychurches.org.uk
